Our Rachael, the rainforest beauty

THE lush North Queensland rainforest has provided the perfect backdrop for a Rachael Finch photo shoot.

Stunning photographs of Rachael taken at Paronella Park near Innisfail will appear in advertisements for luxury swimwear brand JETS.

The images of Miss Universe Australia will appear in issues of Vogue, Harpers Bazaar and Madison until the end of the year as part of the JETS spring/summer 2010 collection, created by Jessika Allen.

"Rachael has huge potential – she embodied the JETS personality and was a true professional," JETS owner Adrian Allen said.

"We have not been impacted like this since we worked with Miranda Kerr in our early campaigns."

Images of Rachael in the shoot will also be featured on the catwalk when the designs are revealed during the Sydney Fashion Festival on Thursday.

Rachael is competing in the Bahamas for the title of Miss Universe. The winner will be crowned on August 23.

The 84 finalists tomorrow will take part in the first official round of the competition.

This will include swimwear and evening wear parades, along with one-on-one interviews with judges.
